Conflict Resolution

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- What does it mean to compromise? Can you compromise and still get what you want?
- If you have a disagreement with someone and you think they are completely wrong, what do you do? Why?
- Agree or disagree: When you get into a conflict with someone, it's okay to hit and call names. Explain your answers.
- Agree or disagree: It's uncool to lose an argument. Explain your answers.
- Are there some conflicts that just can't be resolved? Why or why not?
- Is there a lot of violence at your school? What are some things schools can do to help prevent conflicts and violence?
- Do you have family members or friends who argue a lot? Do you ever feel caught in the middle? How do you feel?

WRITING ASSIGNMENTS:

Write about a time you had a conflict with someone. Did it end peacefully? What was your part in the conflict? Was there anything you could have done differently?

What kinds of things make your emotions become uncontrollable? What are some of the things you do to help control your emotions? What are some things you can do to prevent conflicts and violence?

Research a historical conflict. What was the central issue behind the conflict? Was it resolved peacefully? If so, how? If it wasn't resolved peacefully, what could have been done to avoid violence?

Write a poem about conflict resolution, world peace, or the value of an opposing opinion.
